Session

T132. Old and the New, Long and the Short: Perspectives on Integration of Timescales of Magmatic Processes: Special Session Related to MGPV Awards to Madison Myers and Anita Grunder

Session Description

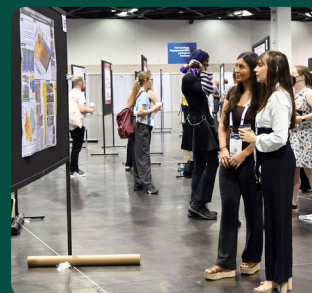

We encourage papers that challenge and give insights into the interplay between timescales, methodologies, and processes to build a cohesive understanding of the lifespan, evolution, storage, and eruption of magma, from plutonic to volcanic systems.

Session Chairs

Anita Grunder, Madison Myers
